Butterfly Effect

If you could go back would you see the need for change?
With another chance would you try to rearrange
All the past events or would you choose to stay the same
Would you take the time to read between the lines?

As I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
I take a look at where I came from
There were times in my life where I could find a regret
But I have learned from them one by one

If you found a path straighter than your own
And a chance to build a home away from home
Would you take the lead; would you lay the corner stone?
Would you build the wall, or would you let it fall

Pretty little butterfly flying high up in the air
And a tiny little caterpillar rolling on the ground says,
"How'd you get up there?" Butterfly says,
"I was once like you but I had to make a change
I put my trust in the Lord like I had never before
Now I'm never gonna be the same."
