

From the album, Character Appreciation (2007)

Martha, Martha

All the huss and fuss all the preparation

Jesus comes to visit us we must make him feel at home

Mary kneels at His feet without hesitation

Martha tends to the chores and she's all alone

Yeah she's all alone

Mary and Martha are sisters with different opinions

They disagree on what's important like children often do

Martha stays busy cooking and cleaning all day

Mary drops everything just to hear what Jesus has to say

Mary's not concerned with the mop or the broom

And Martha's done enough chores to go crazy

So Martha get's mad and she pitches a fit

Jesus tell my sister stop being lazy

And Jesus says, Martha, Martha can't you see

Mary is right where she needs to be

Martha, Martha can't you see

Your sister is here with me

She had no idea what she was missing

She was so caught up with everyday living

She had no idea what she was missing

The Savior came to visit and she was busy cleaning the kitchen
