Walk Into This Place

We come here for love

We come here for truth

We come here for answers to what we should do

But most of all we come for you

Most of all we come for the King of kings to walk into this place

Prince of peace share with us your grace

We lay at your feet this offering of praise

King of kings walk into this place

We come to repent

We come to renew

We come here with absolutely nothing to lose

But most of all we come for you

Lamb of God, Son of Man, I place my heart into your hands

For your presence we unite; guide us with your Holy Light
